

CooVox U20V2 v2.1.4 Changelog

Upgrade Notice:

System password will be reset after upgrading so that system cannot reboot automatically(although rebooting is displayed).

Please switch off the device after upgrading and then switch on again.

1. Important security update. Fixed some security vulnerabilities.
2. Admin user password will be reset to 'admin'. After upgrading please change admin user password.
3. Fixed the bug when the last conference admin exits, the conference will not be terminated.
4. Deactivated Operator user as default settings, added option on the admin web interface to manage operator user.
5. Enabled access log of the IPPBX system as default settings.
6. Adjusted time zone settings of Chile.
7. Adjusted extension user login password to extension password instead of voicemail password.
8. Updated Italian translation of the web interface.
9. Changed the way of system reset. Hold the RST button till SYS LED fast blink then release the button to reset.
10. Fixed the bug of MWI doesn't work with some IP phones.
11. Fixed call recording malfunction issue when a call is forwarded on busy or no answer call.
12. Adjusted miscount of extension numbers on operator page.
13. Improved extension deleting efficiency.
14. Adjusted recording playback dialog.
15. Adjusted voicemail to email feature to support multiple email addresses, each address is separated by a "|" symbol without quote.